The new vibrant classical sound of Sydney

The newly formed Sydney Omega Ensemble is a Sydney based chamber group of eleven vibrant, young, emerging professional classical artists performing chamber music of the highest calibre. All of the performers are in demand in various Symphony Orchestras throughout Sydney and Australia. The ensemble is comprised of string quintet, wind quintet and pianist, allowing them to perform the broadest possible range of repertoire. By interacting with their audiences at performances they hope to make music accessible to a wider and younger audience.
